Dear Friends in Christ,

Though I am filled with many emotions as I depart the Holy child parish I have grown to love so much. Up to the last minute, I really hoped things could change, but God's ways as the scripture say, are not our ways, this means my time to depart has come.

Ever since I arrived in your parish as your Pastor, I have reflected on what the Lord has done for me these past two years—and I have so many reasons to give thanks.

Upon arriving in the parish, I was a bit overwhelmed, for there is no school for pastors that teach you how to pastor. You learn by being one. Since it was my first time as pastor after many year of academic pursuit, I didn't know what I was getting into, however from the first day, I knew immediately that your parish had a lot to teach me. Of course, being aware of my limitations and weaknesses, I was sure that the Spirit of the Lord, a Spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel and strength shall rest upon us to lead and to guide us. That is exactly what God has done for me all the time I have been in this parish, and for that I am most thankful.

When I came to you, I did not have a predisposed plan for what I was to do as Pastor. I just tried everyday to work with you to develop what we have done together and to continue the good work you had started. For this, all we have done in the last two years is a testament that, each of us is a missionary. Each of us is called to be a saint. This has been evident to me in your desire to live as people who are joyful, welcoming, service oriented, who are the face of Jesus for others, interested, excited about what you do. By your own holiness, by your imitation of Jesus, by trying to be the face of Jesus, you lead and strengthen each other.

To those who are part of the many wonderful ministries here in the Parish, I am grateful for your support for me through the years. I have assured Fr Ben of your support in all way.

To the children and youth of the parish, in this short time we have spent together, I have become more ecstatic about your futures in Jesus Christ and the way you shake up the Church and the World with your enthusiasm and desire to dedicate your lives to Jesus. Thank you for the ways your have inspired and formed me in Christ's love. As the director of youth ministries in our Diocese, I hope to see you again at the different events coming up in the diocese.

Walking the journey of faith with you has been the greatest joys of my life

May the blessed mother keep watch over you with Christ her Son.

Fr. Gerald

Development and Peace

Our God who is full of compassion, promises to lift up those who are bowed down. Lead us to understand not our own actions, dwelling within our own imperfect mind and flesh, but to call in trust and unity of spirit upon Jesus Christ. Help us to also become conduits of his grace as we work towards the Common Good. Take some time to explore some of the activities and resources Development and Peace has made available for Canadians to engage with Global Justice at <http://www.devp.org/en/resources/activities>
